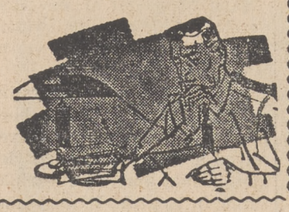
The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



Horse Owners Face Restrictions

Eventually the County Board of Supervisors will get their collective noses in an issue that spells trouble.

The Board hopes to apply better controls on the keeping of large animals, primarily horses, in residential areas.

If the Board thinks it has had fly-chicken ranch trouble, it will face a new dimension when it attacks this problem.

Nobody loves flies. Few people view chickens as pets or lovable creatures. The battle there is between many home owners and a comparatively small number of chicken ranchers.

But horses. That's something else.

In the unincorporated areas where many people believe that the horse is an untouchable part of the rural way of life, there is bound to be a reaction explosion to any additional controls perpetrated by government.

On the other hand there is a large segment of population that believes their neighbors shouldn't keep big animals in rapidly-developing residential areas. Horse complaints are running high, county officials admit.

In the City of San Diego, restrictions are placed on horse-keeping on the basis of residential density.

In the county, controls on horses in private ownership are practically non-existent. Horses may be kept in unlimited numbers in all but a frighteningly few places. Property zoned "professional" or "parking" denies the keeping of animals. But how many places zoned for these uses do you know about.

Except for a few set-back regulations called corral rules, horses can be kept in unlimited numbers in most areas of the unincorporated county.

It is our guess that the Supervisors will earn their pay for the abuse they take when the horse problem is studied.

And once the stable door is opened for study, a long, hot summer of meetings will ensue.

COMMUNITY BEAT — Youngsters such as Michele Dale, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dale, 2629 Citronella st., Lemon Grove, will have more frequent contact with the Sheriff's Department officers as a result of a pilot program being tried here. Officers of the "beat" will serve about two years and will get to know citizens personally. Taking notes is Sheriff's Deputy Dave Pugh while Deputy Richard Rabell holds discussion with Michele. Rabell is lead man of the six man beat — two men for each shift. Patrols will serve all citizens — not teenagers alone. Officers will hold a series of informal public meetings with citizens, Rabell said.

L.G. Planners Set Executive Board Meet For July 16 at 3 p.m.

The first executive committee meeting of the Lemon Grove Community Planning Committee has been set for Thursday July 16 at 3 p.m. at the Lemon Grove Junior High school auditorium Robert Kelsay, chief, Community Planning Division of the County said today.

Notices are being sent by mail to those who signed up to serve on the executive committee. Any other interested resident may attend.

Four items will be on next week's agenda Kelsay said.

These are: 1. select temporary officers.

2. confirm boundaries for the proposed planning area.

3. write and approve by-laws.

4. establish a work program.

Officers will maintain a "temporary" status until the committee has been approved by the County Board of Supervisors, Kelsay said.

Determinations of executive committee will be given to the general committee for approval. At the initial meeting at Mt. Miguel auditorium June 30, about 575 people were in attendance. 145 signed up for executive committee service.

Planning will concern such things as roads, parks, and utilities. All meetings are open to the public and anyone who wishes, may serve.

Police Pilot Program Puts Cop Back on Beat

A Sheriff's Department pilot program of community protection that will "put the cop back on the beat" is underway in the Lemon Grove area.

A six-man beat is operating around-the-clock to provide a two-man patrol for each 8-hour shift.

The first daytime patrol consists of Deputies Richard Rabell and Dave Pugh. Rabell is the beat's lead man.

Sgt. Eldon Carl, Sheriff's Department Community Relations Director said this week that beat men will serve two years, if possible, so that residents here will get to know the officers. Shifts will also be on a two year basis so that the six men will become familiar local figures. The other four men are Deputies Richard Urban, F. J. Woods, Fred R. Brown, and R. J. Schweitzer.

The officers will leave their patrol vehicles frequently to converse with residents, according to Captain Quentin Cash, officer in charge of the East County sub-station in El Cajon. The men will work from the Lemon Grove office on Broadway, he said. More frequent visits to business establishments and professional offices are scheduled, too, he said.

A series of public meetings will be held at which residents may hold informal discussions with members of the patrol, Sgt. Carl said.

Walkie-talkie sets will be added to the patrol's equipment eventually to give patrol men greater foot mobility, Cash added.

The pilot program will be officially known as Beat 502 — no relation to the Highway Patrol's former drinking driver reference number. In Los Angeles, where a similar program is under way, it is called the Community Basic Beat.

Those who wish to contact the patrol will do so in the same manner as for any other contact with the Sheriff's Department. The call is made through headquarters at 232-3811.

Dr. Tom Early Takes Family Practice Board

A Lemon Grove medical doctor has been accredited by the American Board of Family Practice, Inc.

The man, Dr. Thomas R. Early, passed the examination last month. Dr. Early is associated with the Lemon Grove Medical Group at 3240 Main st., A.B.F.P. reported.

The program was developed to encourage family practice specialties in the future in medical schools. Many authorities in government and medical schools have been pushing for more general practitioners.

By such training there would be a basic cadre of people certified in that area of practice to each in these programs.

Dr. Early is a Diplomate of this Board. A diplomate is a physician who has successfully passed all the required examinations of any speciality.

Dr. Early had an early interest in general practice. This is the field he chose when he took his residency at Navy Hospital 15 years ago just prior to joining the local medical group.

About then TIME magazine devoted it's Medical Section to Dr. Early — he was at the time one of the diminishing number of doctors determined to go into general practice as opposed to specialization.

The American Board of Family Practice suggests that the family doctor may gain a little more prestige in the medical profession which, in turn, should attract more young doctors into that field.

A proposal recently by the American Medical Association was for all doctors to spend a few years treating patients before embarking on specialities or going into research or academic medicine.

A study shows that about 30 percent of all doctors being trained never do treat patients.

The American Board of Family Practice tests were conducted in Lexington, Ky. 81.6 per cent of total of the 2,078 physicians passed the test.

Low Interest Rates Hurt, Too

1 to 1 School Bond Issue Still Clouded Says McLees

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County counsel Bertram McLees said Monday that he would advise school districts and other special districts to go slow on relying on the decision of the California Supreme Court which set aside the two-thirds vote requirement for general obligation bonds.

McLees told the Board of Supervisors that the court decision was basically that of a state court ruling on the federal Supreme Court "one man, one vote" position.

He said that a San Francisco firm of bond attorneys that handles most school bond issues in this county has advised him that the subject should be handled by state legislation and, perhaps, a constitutional amendment to clarify the issue.

McLees and his staff are the primary legal advisors to county school districts, but as McLees said, are not experts in the field of bonds.

One question, he said, is that if one section of state law concerning general obligation bond issues has been ruled invalid does this invalidate other bonding sections.

He said it could be arguable if any bonding provisions remain.

County officials, including assistant treasurer, R. H. Kixmoeller, said that the state of the bond market is such that school districts might be well advised to not attempt passage of simple majority bond issues until the situation is clarified.

Even two-third majority bond issues are of doubtful salability at the state-set limit of seven percent. Vista and Bonsall school districts failed to get bidders recently.

McLees told the Board of Supervisors that the U. S. Supreme Court will not be back in session until October. This leaves the county's own bond issue planned for the November general election as much up in the air as smaller district issues.

The state court ruled that a two-thirds majority requirement gave more weight to a negative vote than to a yes vote, but did not make the ruling retroactive.

The issue is already before the U. S. Supreme Court and the California decision will probably be appealed.

School Board Strengthens Discipline Plan

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and elected the 1970-71 slate of officers, re-electing the same slate. Warren Buckner is president, Robert Sjogren is vice-president, Lyle Stumbaugh is clerk, and Byron Netzley is secretary.

In other action Monday, the board strengthened the teachers' positions in discipline and corporal punishment matters. Under former district policies, the teachers were allowed to inflict "minor physical punishment" upon students, but were required to report the action immediately to the principal of the school.

Also, the principal was able to inflict major punishments, usually a paddling, in front of an adult witness.

Under the new policy, teachers are now allowed to inflict major punishments in front of an adult witness.

The board also approved measures which would promote communication between school personnel and parents in regards to discipline matters. Additionally, the board ok'd adding a section to the teacher handbooks spelling out exactly what a teacher may do to discipline a child.

The Board also discussed an agreement with the Grossmont district for computerization of class schedules, a teacher strategy program, and the purchase of a bus and delivery van.

Over 1,000 Turn Out For Picnic

More than a thousand Lemon Grove area residents turned out at Lemon Grove Park Saturday for the Annual Old Fashioned Fourth of July Picnic of the Lemon Grove Oldtime Days Association.

Jim Dorman, President of the Association reported that the crowd ebbed and flowed with about 500 on hand most of the time.

They enjoyed music by The R.I.P.'s, entertainment by Harold The Terrible, Lemon Grove's Muddled Mystic, games, refreshments and door prizes.

Arrow Electro Co. furnished a portable generator and Dell Lake, owner operator of DelRon's, furnished the sound system that contributed so largely to the success of the day.

In addition to the scheduled egg and spoon, three-legged and sack races for all ages, Dorman reports there were games of touch football, softball, soccer, basketball and horse shoe pitching.

Beautiful door prizes were donated by Lemon Grove merchants. Contributing merchants included Sprouse Reitz, Linda's, Warren's Furniture, Berry's Sporting Goods, Russell Plumbing, and Lemon Grove Camera.

Dorman called this year's Oldtime Days "The most successful in the history of the event. It gives great promise for next year and many years to come."

LG Fire Report

With the dry weather upon us, the Lemon Grove Fire Department has been busy answering grass fire calls.

On June 29 at 10:10 a.m. firemen responded to a call along the railroad right of way, but no damage was reported.

On June 30 at 2:14 p.m., firemen again responded to a call to a grass fire on the r.r. right of way further east, but again with no damage.

A trash can fire, possibly set intentionally, was the cause of firemen rolling on July 1 at 6:29 p.m. to the Thrifty Drug Store. The only damage was to the can.

Three dry grass fires on July 4 kept firemen busy. The first was 2:39 a.m. in the 1800 block Dexter, and no damage; the second was at 9:17 p.m. in

Preserve Status May Cost Jamul Taxpayers Added 30¢

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The county assessor's office says that the agricultural preserve status of the Daley ranch in Jamul, Rancho Jamul, will give the ranch a tax gain of $152,247 during the next fiscal year.

Of the 21 AP contracts in force at the lien date of May 1, the Daley ranch has a tax gain of $40,000 more than all the others.

Wilson Thomson, assessor's chief of valuation, said updated market valuations were placed on all preserves. The market value of the 8,320-acre ranch was placed at $7,600,000, whereas the 1968 value was given as $2,902,700.

The value under the contract is given as $884,000, a decrease in value of $6,716,000 and a decrease of assessed valuation of $1,679,000.

To gain AP status, the Daley brothers agreed to a contract provision that they would reimburse the Jamul-Los Flores School District for taxes lost.

This figure, however, was set at $10,983, and does not include a sliding scale of increased payments as the market value continues to rise over the farm production value.

Applying last year's tax rate in the school district and the new market and assessed values, in round figure, the district would collect $29,450 in taxes from the ranch.

All the district can expect is the $10,983. This leaves over $18,000 for the rest of the property taxpayers in the district to pick up, and with a 1969-70 valuation of less than $6,000,000 the district would need to raise taxes 30 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Conversely, if the money was not placed in the budget, it means the AP would prevent a lowered tax rate of the same amount, or a combination of the two.

Some district taxpayers may feel that they don't have a 30-cent per $100 interest in preserving the Daley's small cattle grazing operation.

The figures will change when the new assessed valuation of the district and the new tax rate are known, but the shift is not likely to change the general situation.

Alec Cory, lawyer for the Daley's, said the market value figure of $7,600,000 was meaningless.

It is a figure that would surely have been challenged immediately in an application to the Assessment Appeal Board.

The Daley's, in fact, had such an application before the appeal board at the market value of $2.9 million at the time the AP was created in a three to two vote of the County Board of Supervisors.

Second District Supervisor Henry A. Boney opposed the Daley preserve, but he and Robert Cozens were outvoted by De Graff Austin, Robert Dent and Frank Gibson.

Dent and Gibson were serving their last day on the board when the decision was made.

CdO Section Of 94 Opens

Traffic opens today on the two-mile section of State Highway 94 near Casa de Oro.

California Division of Highways District Engineer Jacob Dekema said the 4-lane freeway project lies between Kenwood drive and Avocado blvd. in the Spring Valley-Casa de Oro area. Constructed by Daley Corporation at a cost of $3.1 million, the freeway has been under construction for about one year. The project includes interchanges at Kenwood dr., Sweetwater Springs blvd., and Avocado blvd. Calavo dr. Dekema said it should take approximately three weeks to complete work on the bridge structure and ramps at Avocado blvd. but this will have no effect on through traffic due to a temporary connection at the east end of the project.

Local traffic may use either Sweetwater Springs blvd. to the west or a temporary connection to the east of Avocado blvd. when crossing Highway 94.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Is here any difference between "porque" and "por que?" These words sound the same to me and except for the separation of "por que" they have the same spelling. Please explain.

"Porque" is a combination, as you have mention, of the two separate words "por" and "que:" "por" meaning "for" and "que" meaning "what." When they are said in sequence they are translated to mean "why." Thus we may say "Por que" va usted?" to express "Why are you going?" or "Por que estudia?" for "Why do you study?"

When "porque" is written as one word and not separated it means "because." This particular use of "porque" may be seen in the expression "Porque deseo" for "Because I want to" or in the phrase "Porque es necesario" for "Because it is necessary."

Some minor difficulty arises when one hears "por que" or "porque" in conversation and can not visualize the word separation which helps distinguish the meaning. In these cases one has to search for the meaning by relating and defining the other words in the phrase and determine which will more logically fit into the translation, "why" or "because." This is not easy but with some practice it can be done.

Practice phrases below give variations in the way "por que" and "porque" are used. You may wish to learn them with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Por que va usted?" (pohr-KEH vah oo-STEHD)
for "Why are you going?"
Say "Porque you deseo." (pohr-KEH yoh deh-SEH oh)
for "Because I want to."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Por que estudia usted?" (pohr-KEH eh-STOO-dee-ah oo-STEHD)
for "Why do you study?"
Say "Porque es importante." (pohr-KEH ehs eem-pohr-tahn-teh)
for "Because it is important."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Por que da usted?" (pohr-KEH-dah oo-STEHD (pohr-KEH dah oo-STEHD) for "Why do you give?"
Say "Porque ellos piden?" (pohr-KEH eh-yohs PEE-dehn)
for "Because they ask."

Anti-pollution laws are not new. One was passed by Congress 71 years ago making it illegal to dump solid refuse into navigable waters without a permit.

The summer employees include both young men and young women. They represent all ethnic groups and a wide range of economical levels. They come from 14 high schools in the company's service territory and 31 colleges and universities across the country.

LETTERS

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the students and faculty at Lemon Grove Junior High, may I express our appreciation for your support and coverage this past year.

The publicizing of our Honor Rolls, Citizenship list and other awards was stimulating and rewarding to the students. The excellent publicity given to all the donors to the band uniform fund was, I'm sure, an important stimulus in the meeting of their financial goal by the Music Parents.

We are fortunate in this community to have a publication dedicated to the positive aspects of our youth and schools.

Very truly yours,
Louis Poluzzi,

Lions Club Installs New Slate Of Officers For 1970-71 Fiscal Year

We Serve, the motto of the Spring Valley Lions Club, was re-emphasized recently as the achievements of the local club were reviewed and a new slate of officers were installed last week.

The Cardinal Room of the King's Inn offered the perfect setting for the occasion as Lloyd Weber, conducting his last meeting as president, presented awards in appreciation for the hard work some of the Lions performed during the year.

Outstanding among those was William J. Biggs, who received the "Lion of The Year" award, presented for superior achievement.

Some of the club's accomplishments over the past year include the hosting of two Japanese exchange students for six weeks by Art Dutton and Bill Biggs, the passing out of candy during Operation Santa Claus, sponsoring of an anti-rabies clinic, and the co-sponsoring of a Pop Warner football team.

Other projects included painting a house for an elderly resident, collecting over four hundred books for the wounded at Navy Hospital, and spending over $500 for examinations, glasses and visual training for Spring Valley children in need of eye care.

New officers installed at the affair include Art Dutton, president, Bob Bizzell, William Briggs, and John Baker, vice-presidents, and six new members of the board of directors.

Banks To Be Open Longer

A major expansion of customer service hours at most Bank of America branches in San Diego County was announced last week by San Diego Regional Vice President C. O. Phillips, including two branches in Spring Valley.

Drive-in or walk-up deposit windows have been constructed at 37 of the county's 47 branches and will provide deposit and check cashing services up to three hours beyond normal banking hours, he said.

While schedules vary at a few branches, most of the new outside windows will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

Object of the program, Phillips explained, is to allow customers who find it difficult to reach the bank during working hours a more convenient schedule to transact their normal banking business.

Bank of America is spending $2.7 million to equip branches throughout the state with the new teller service.

The extended hours program is not available at all branches, he said, because the structure or location of some offices made the installation of exterior teller windows impractical or impossible.

Grossmont Sets Third Program In Kinetic Art

Two great names in the contemporary art film world will be represented in the third program of the first half of "The Kinetic Art" film series scheduled for 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. today in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

"Versailles" produced by famed French director Albert Lamorisse, is his first short film since "The Red Balloon." Shot from a helicopter, the film unfolds the royal splendors of Versailles. "It was not I who made the film, but Louis Quatorze, says Lamorisse.

San Francisco's Jordan Belson, whose sensational "Phenomena" thrilled audiences in the first Kinetic Arts showing, brings another eye-shattering abstraction in "Samadhi." In a universe of sheer color, this abstract film is actually composed of photographic elements of sunspots, microphotography and nebulae. The film was completed with the assistance of a Guggenheim Fellowship.

The third program in the series also includes a 60 second "encore" by talented oji Kuri titled, "Flower." This film was a Silver Award winner at the Montreal Exposition Animation Festival. Surrealism and bizarre color will be provided by two films from Prague titled "The Last Trick of Mr. Edgar" and "The Magician."

Completing the program will be "Gavotte," produced by Parisian Walerian Borowczyk.

Citizen's Committee to Be Formed This Fall

Establishment of a list of 'goals and objectives' for the Grosmont Union High School District will be the task of a broad-based citizens committee to be formed this Fall.

In recommending the formation of such a group, District Superintendent Austin Selery told the Governing Board, "We critically need the support and understanding of our community in order to function effectively.

"In the final analysis, the public schools belong to the public as the schools educate its children and are funded by its dollars.

"We are asking the community to reaffirm this belief and to update its aspirations for the education of its children and youth by developing a list of goals and objectives for the District," Sellery said.

"In accomplishing this, it is necessary that the community also be responsible to its teachers and to the perceptions of its students and their learning needs," Sellery continued.

The proposal, accepted by the Board, suggests a citizens committee of about 40-60 people "representing, as widely as possible, various occupational, religious and ethnic groups."

The committee's report is expected to take the best part of the school year. The District professional staff will act as resource members to the citizens committee in providing basic information to them about the District, its professional staff, students and the make-up of the community it serves.

"Final approval and accountability resides with the Governing Board," Sellery reminded. "The Board has the responsibiity to review the total effort, make modifications if necessary and adopt the Goal and Objectives Statement."

Sellery emphasized to the Board that goals and objectives represent the philosophy of the District and must necessarily be broad in scope. "In effect, the citizens committee develops 'where we are going' statements. It is the responsibility of the professional staff to develop the educational programs which tell us 'how to get there'."

Selection of the membership of the citizens committee will be a composite of Board and administrative recommendations and response by community members to open invitation. The final list will be approved by the Board.

In addition to community members, it is recommended to include five to seven students and an equal number of teachers.

Mrs. Cody, who adapted and directed the Musical fantasy, said it was the decision of the cast to give the performance for the children in addition to their regular performances at 2 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday through July 26.

Shakespeare Play To Open Globe Season

The complete repertory of the Old Globe Theatre 1970 summer season will begin tonight with the opening of the dramatic legend "Cymbeline."

The 21st San Diego National Shakespeare Festival will continue performances of the romantic comedy "Much Ado About Nothing", the tragic history of "King Richard II" and "Cymbeline" through September 13. Performances are nightly except Monday with matinees on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

"Cymbeline" is one of Shakespeare's seldom performed plays. Written during the last few years of his theatre career, the name Cymbeline is the King of Britain, father of Imogen, heroine of the romantic play. When his daughter marries Posthumus against his will, the king banishes the groom from the kingdom. The crafty villain Iachimo, who denounces feminine virtue, wagers with Posthumus that Imogen will be unfaithful. He schemes to prove his contention.

Tax Tales

A New York architect attempted to deduct the cost of landscaping his sumptuous home. He argued that he was maintaining a show place house in order to display his design abilities.

The Tax Court conceded that there might be a connection between his business and the deduction but not enough to "transform the essentially personal character" of the landscaping.

Here Today . . . Gone Tomorrow Auto Thefts

One minute the care is there . . . the next minute it has disappeared. This was the experience of more than 900,000 motorists last year.

F. P. Mims, Regional Manager of the Allstate Motor Club, points out that experts predict that over one million cars will vanish this year if the present rate of theft increase continues.

U. S. auto insurers paid nearly 300,000,000 for auto thefts in 1969, he said.

"The stolen car problem is a bad one. But of equal concern is the death and destruction caused by drivers of stolen cars. Last year stolen cars were involved in 165,000 crashes causing some 650 deaths and 23,000 injuries," Mims said.

How can motorists help solve the auto theft problem? The Allstate executive offered these suggestions:

Always remove the key from the ignition, even when making a "quick stop" at the corner store. (Two out of five stolen cars have the key in the ignition.)

Lock the doors and close all of the windows including the vent windows. (four out of five stolen cars are unlocked.)

Luggage and other articles of value attract attention, so lock them in the trunk.

Avoid parking on dimly lit streets or in dark obscur areas streets or in dark obscure areas where it is easier for cars to be "spirited away."

DMV Announces The Coming Of The Yellow Slip

If you have a motor vehicle, you probably know that a "pink slip" is a 5x5-inch square of paper that tells the world you are the vehicle's owner. But what's a "yellow slip"?

This new document has been designed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to let you tell the world when you have stopped owning the vehicle.

A pink slip, registration card and yellow slip are being mailed to every person who acquires exclusive ownership of a California-registered vehicle beginning in July, 1970 The pink and yellow forms should be kept together in a safe place until title to the vehicle passes to someone else.

"When you hand the pink slip to whoever buys your vehicle, send the yellow slip to us," advises California's Registrar of Vehicles John L. McLaughlin. "It can protect you from being accused of traffic violations which might be charged to the future owner."

He added that it's still the buyer's legal duty to record transfer of the vehicle within ten days after taking delivery, so that ownership records can be rewritten in his name.

Household Help Employers Must Pay SS Taxes

Housewives who pay someone $50 or more for household services during any three-month calendar quarter must report these payments and pay the Social Security taxes due to the Internal Revenue Service by July 31.

The Social Security tax on household wages is 4.8 percent for the employer and 4.8 percent for employee. When the quarterly report is filed, a check or money order representing 9.6 percent of the cash wages reported for the period should be included with the return.

No taxes are due on amounts paid to persons who are independent contractors and not household employees. This exempts payments to painters, plumbers, repairmen, carpenters and others who provide household services as independent contractors.

Lapham Heads Pro Journalists

Don C. Lapham, editor and publisher of the Solana Beach San Dieguito Citizen, will assume the presidency of the San Diego Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society, at the annual American-Mexican Press Party July 18 in the Plaza Monumental in Tijuana.

A native San Diegan, Lapham attended public schools in La Jolla and entered the U. S. Army Air Force from San Diego State College. He was a B-24 pilot in Italy during World War II and left the Army with the rank of captain.

Following graduation from San Diego State, Lapham joined his father at the San Dieguito Citizen. He has been editor and publisher about 10 years.

Joining Lapham in a new slate of officers are Frank W. Stone, an assistant city editor of the San Diego Evening Tribune, as vice president; Worth Larkin, owner of a San Diego public relations agency, as secretary; and Kenneth C. Reiley, an editorial consultant of Copley Newspapers and a chapter past president, as treasurer.

Re-elected to the board of directors were Allen Palmer, feature editor of the San Diego Union, and Dr. James L. Julian, professor of journalism at San Diego State College, both chapter past presidents, and Kenneth D. Zumwalt, a member of the publisher's staff of the Union-Tribune Publishing Co.

Members and guests may be transported to the July 18 press party by buses leaving the north parking lot at the County Administration Building, 1600 Pacific Highway, at noon. The party will end at 6 p.m.

Senior Aid Demand Falling Shorter

Many senior citizens are failing to take advantage of the property tax assistance which is available to those who qualify. Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh said this week that only 36,000 claims had been filed so far, and that at this time last year more than 45,000 had been received in Sacramento.

"This is the third year of the California Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Program," he said. The program was adopted by the Legislature in 1967 to aid senior Californians in paying for property taxes. Deddeh was co-author of the bill.

The program provides for a refund of the claimant's property taxes ranging to 95%, depending upon the claimant's household income.

Deddeh also said that many senior citizens in reporting their Social Security income, are using the present payment schedule instead of that in effect in 1969.

"This is unfortunate," said Deddeh, "because if they are reporting increased income, they will receive proportionately diminished property tax relief.

To be eligible claimants must be over 65 years as of January 1; must own and occupy their home; must have a total household income of less than $3,350.

Forms may be obtained from any office of the Franchise Tax Board or by writing to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807. Deadline for filing is Oct. 15.

Summer Fun Time Is Also Time For Safety

Ah, summer! The season of sun, sea and surf, of lazy days, long weekends in the country, vacations at mountain or seashore. Also the season of heat prostration, drowning, lightning, food poisoning and bites and stings — any of which can be lethal.

Author James Winchester offers these tips on dealing with such mishaps.

Drowning: the fourth most common cause of accidental death in the nation, may be the most easily prevented. Most people can learn to swim in about ten short lessons. Courses are offered at American Red Cross chapters throughout the country, as well as at local "Ys." But even accomplished swimmers should never swim alone, or when overheated or overtired. And nobody should ever dive before making sure the water is deep enough.

Sun and Heat exhaustion or stroke can be avoided by resisting the urge to overdo activities, and by dressing in light-colored clothing, drinking plenty of water and taking an occasional salt tablet or salt solution when you've worked up a sweat. (But never take salt when drinking water is in short supply.)

Lightning strikes from 40 to 80 times per year in an average square mile. In a thunderstorm, the worst places to be are on a high spot, in a boat, at a beach or near metal objects. And don't try to hide under an isolated tree. They attract lightning bolts. Probably the safest place in a thunderstorm, the article says, is inside an all-steel enclosed car.

Food poisoning can best be prevented by keeping hot food hot and cold food cold. A packed lunch that cannot be refrigerated should be eaten within three hours.

And beware of anything made with mayonnaise, eggs, whipped cream, milk or fish.

Insect bites and stings are mainly nuisances, but some can be dangerous. If you are stung, run cold water over the sting, or pack ice around it. Don't use your fingers to squeeze out the stinger; this only injects more venom. Scrape the stinger off with a fingernail or sterilized needle.

Finally, if any of the symptoms of the mishaps mentioned above are persistent or severe, don't fool around. See a doctor — fast.

Americans in 1969 gave $17.6 billion to charity, says the American Association of Funding Raising Counsel, Inc.

Seals Net Title Share As Stars Upend Beavers In L.G. Mixup

The Murphy Plumbing Seals, with the help of excellent fielding, pitching and hitting, along with an upset by the Stars, moved into first place in the Lemon Grove Little League intermediate division last week, and clinched a share in the pennant.

Ending their schedule for the year, the Seals beat the Islanders 9-6 and 9-3 to finish with an 8-2 win-loss mark, while the Stars upset the pennant-bound Beavers, in a 21-18 slugfest. The loss dropped the Beavers to second place with a 7-2 mark, while the Stars still have a chance for the title, sporting a 6-2 mark.

The Stars have two games to play, one with the Beavers and one with the Giants, and need a pair of wins to tie for the pennant, but the Beavers also have the flag on the line with their only remaining game. If the Beavers win, they tie for the flag, if the Stars win, the Beavers are eliminated, and the Stars will have to beat the Giants for the honors.

Manager John Murphy has relied on Joe Mangiapone to carry much of the Seals' load this year and the 11-year-old has responded with strong pitching performances and much of the hitting.

Mangiapone hurled his mates to a 9-16 decision over the Islanders in their first game and came up with three hits in four at bats. John Harris contributed two singles as the Seals scored five times in the third inning and twice more in the fifth.

Mangiapone surrendered six hits, two by losing pitcher Mike O'Brien and two by Jeff Linney, and had only one bad inning when the Islanders reached him for four tallies in the third.

In the nightcap, Mike Gamboa turned in a six hitter as the Seals scored in all but one inning to win, 9-3. Mangiapone again banged out three hits including a home run and a double and got help from Bob Shaver who had three hits while Harris, James Murphy and Richard Palmer each had two to pace a 14-hit barrage. Ron Clark and Steve Treantafilos both had two for the Islanders.

The Stars, making a belated bid for laurels, got in the first lick in their important series with the Beavers by garnering a 21-18 slugfest. Jerry Crabtree and Andy Pickron shared mound duties while Jim Engleman was tagged with the loss.

Eight runs in both the second and fourth innings and four more in the fifth did the job as Bob Fortenberry was the big gun with a homer, double and single in four trips to the plate. The Stars picked up 12 hits while the Beavers had nine, three by Jim Stewart.

Standings

Seals	8 - 2
Beavers	7 - 2
Stars	6 - 2
Giants	4 - 4
Padres	1 - 8
Islanders	1 - 9

Spring Valley Shopping Wins Pony League Title

Spring Valley Shopping Center drove the last nail in the Daily Californian coffin last week, clinching the pennant in the Spring Valley Pony League.

S.V. Shopping dropped its first game of the week, 2-1 to Scharf's Backhoe, giving California a thread of hope. But after the Californian team had won both of its games, 7-3 over Shipfitter's A School, and 1-0 over Scharf's, S.V. Shopping blanked Shipfitters 6-0 to win the flag.

Clay Smith led Californian in a game try for the flag, poking a home run in the Shipfitter game, and tossing 7 innings of no-hit ball, as Californian took eight innings to knock off Scharf's.

In other action, Farmer's Center knocked off S.D. Rock, 13-1, and Montgomery Ward moved into third place after beating Farmer's 4-3 and edging Roy's Campers, 3-2.

Spring Valley Pony League named the 1970 all-star team last week, which included three players from the championship team, and two from the second place team. The all-stars will be:

Pads Set For "Dodger Luck" Tomorrow Night

The Padres are back home and eager to make the Dodgers back down when the teams open an important three-game weekend series tomorrow at San Diego Stadium.

Night games at 7:30 are scheduled for Friday and Saturday with Sunday's day contest starting at 1 o'clock.

A baseball clinic for Little Swinger members and their parents will be conducted at Sunday's game. Duke Snider, Dave Campbell and Roger Craig will serve as instructors starting at 10:30. Non-Little Swingers with tickets for that game also may attend.

"Most all of our games with the Dodgers have been close (each club has a shut-out over the other) and a hit at the right time could have decided the outcome differently," according to manager Preston Gomez.

Gomez expects that the "fortunes of baseball" will swing toward San Diego this weekend.

The slugging Padres, showing rival hurlers some muscle, banged four homers in one game against Los Angeles the last time the clubs met, but three of the homers arrived with the bases empty.

The Padres hit 11 homers off the LA staff all last season. Already this year they have clubbed 10. Nate Colbert paced the club with 24 homers last year and has nearly that number now.

Odell, Shaieb, To Duel For Title In Bobby Sox Crucial Tomorrow

Tomorrow night is a crucial one for the members of Shaieb Realty and Odell Realty softball teams from the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League, as the two team square off to see who wins the pennant.

Odell, with a 12-3 record, sits atop the league standings, but Shaieb is just one game behind, and could net a tie, for the flag if it can beat Odell tomorrow night.

Showing a mass of batting muscle two weeks ago, Shaieb started the pennant drive with a pair of wins while Odell was splitting a pair on contests. Last week, Odell remained idle while Shaieb won a 12-11 heartstopper from Clean Rite Sewer and Drain.

In minor league action last week, the top two teams, Delp Plastering, and Galbreath Realty/Sportland, both won. Delp turned the trick 15-3 over Mac Electric, while first-place Galbreath scored a 20-5 decision over S.V. Boosters.

The season will wind up this week, as Delp meets Thomas Disposal/Foster Freeze, and Galbreath takes on Johnson Excavating/S.V. Insulation. A win by Delp and a loss by Galbreath would cause a tie for the pennant.

Golf-A-Thon To Pass Near Here In Late August

A greuling two-man 350-mile golf marathon — the nation's first — over some of the Southwest's roughest terrain will get underway in Phoenix Saturday, Aug. 1, and end approximately three weeks later in San Diego.

Before it is completed, the contestants — both of them prominent PGA members — will have hit an estimated 15,000 shots and played the equivalent of 84 18-hole rounds of golf.

Billed as the Phoenix-San Diego Golf-a-Thon, the competition is being produced by Tee Views, monthly golf magazine for amateur golfers and teaching pros.

Any resemblance to a normal round of golf will end with the first drive. From then on, the contestants will be hitting golf balls along paved highways, over mountains and canals, and across one of the nation's hottest desert countries.

When they cross the Colorado River at Yuma, Ariz., they will be confronted with miles on end of billowing sand dunes. John W. Riggle, president of the Arizona Golf Association and Tee Views advisory board member, has dubbed this stretch of play "America's largest sand trap."

One rule for competition reads: "In case of ball lying on or near rattlesnake, player may play at his own discretion. He may drop a ball any distance from snake he chooses, provided it is no closer to San Diego."

The official route traverses these communities: Phoenix, Avondale, Buckeye, Gila Bend, Welton and Yuma, Ariz.; Winterhaven, Holtville, El Centro, Jacumba, Pine Valley, Alpine, El Cajon and San Diego, Calif.

Although Lemon Grove may be slightly "off the fairway", it may be a good idea to keep all eyes eastward, just in case a competitor "slices one" down Broadway.

Ohio has 65 colleges.

Little Swingers To See Free Ballgame Sunday

The treat of the season is coming up . . . a "clinic" for Padre Little Swingers his Sunday at San Diego Stadium.

Duke Snider, Dave Campbell and Roger Craig will instruct Little Swingers on all baseball techniques, including a "skull" session on "inside baseball."

The clinic starts at 10:30 with the Padres and the Dodgers clashing at 1 p.m. in a regularly scheduled, one of eight during the season, free admission game available to all Little Swingers.

Griffin Gridders Net New Coach For Next Year

The Governing Board at Grossmont College met Monday night and decided upon a new assistant football coach for the school's 1970 grid season. Don Rohrke, former coach at Madera High School, was the selection.

An opening was created in the coaching staff when Bob Rump decided to stop coaching football and remain as the Athletic Director and tennis mentor.

Rohrke has been coaching at the high school school level seven years, with his first three seasons at Atwater High School, the next two in Santa Maria, and the past two years at Madera.

After earning All-American honors as an offensive guard and a linebacker at Hartnell Junior College, Rohrke transferred to Sacramento State College, where he played two years as a linebacker and a free safety.

Rohrke's title will be "defensive coordinator" and that means he will be in charge of the entire Griffin defensive unit.

In a phone conservation on Tuesday afternoon, Rohrke said that he was looking froward to coming to Grossmont, and that he plans to stick to head coach Clint Whitfield's philosophy of defense when coaching the Griffins.

"We'll run basically the same defense as the team did last year, but there could be some changes," said the new Griffin coach. "Our linebacking should be strong," he said when asked to comment on the 1970 outlook.

Rohrke is teaching summer school at Madera High School, but will come to the area in August to find a home for himself and his family.

Along with his wife Gwen, Rohrke has three children: Rob 10, Gretchen 5, and Alex 7 months.

'Mr. Cool' To Lead Cajon Races Saturday

Bonita's "Mr. Cool", Russ Bullen, still leading the super stock points race at Cajon Speedway, will get competition this Saturday night from a host of local leadfoots, as Ed Hale, Lemon Grove, Pat McIntyre, Spring Valley, and Jim Hitt, Lemon Grove, set their sights on a victory at the Speedway.

Hale, who dropped from second to third place two weeks ago in the points standings after a spectacular collision with McIntyre and Carl Adams, leads area hopefuls. McIntyre is in fourth place, 300 points behind Hale, and Hitt, off to a slow start this season, is in tenth place.

Last week, in open competition races, Bill Butts made off with his second 50-lapper in as many tries this season, beating John Dineen (second in points) and Hale to the checkered flag.

The open competition, which carries no point value, but carries a large amount of prize money ($8,000) marks the half-way point in the super stock season. The second half of competition starts this Saturday, and Bullen, who has won four main events, still clings to a 350 point edge over second place Dineen and third place Hale.

Tomorrow night, the modifieds and figure-eight cars will smoke up the banked oval, as Don Hamilton, two-time main event winner from El Cajon, tries to stop the challenge of Jim Wood, of Ramona, who won last week's encounter, and the figure-eight battle between Hale and Dean Erwin continues.

Hale, who won last week's main event, will try to become the season's first to win two mains in as many weeks, while Erwin, also a Lemon Grove driver, tries to win his third main of the year.

Monte Vista, Mount Miguel Score Wins

The Mount Miguel Matadors and Monte Vista Monarchs enjoyed a pleasant week last week, as the Miguelmen put away a couple of victories, while Monte Vista won their first game of the year, in American Legion baseball action.

Rick Baker, Monte Vista's ace lefty, came up with another fine performance last Thursday, but to his surprise, the Monarch bats gave him enough support to register a win. Baker, primarily a fastball pitcher, mowed down nine Hoover Cardinals enroute to his 4-1 victory, and allowed only four singles over seven innings.

Art Sphar, the Monarchy's golden gloved shortstop became a hitter long enough to belt Monte Vista's first home run of the year, a sixth inning circuit rap with nobody on.

Baker himself got into the hitting act, clouting a double in the fifth inning, batting in a pair of runs.

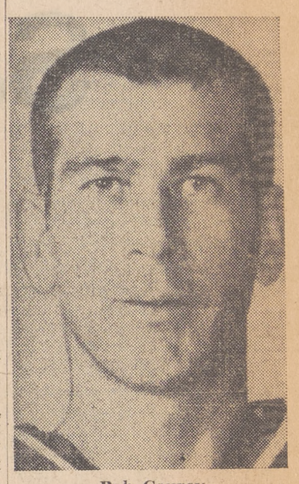
Meanwhile, Mount Miguel's powerful bats were engaged in lop-sided slug-fest against Sweetwater High, beating the Red Devils, 14-3.

The Devils scored a pair in the first to take the lead, but were never close after that. Tom Young and Mark Schuff put on the Matador's exhibition of hitting, as Young went 3 for 3, and Schuff belted a double and a triple.

On Monday, the Miguel bats boomed again, this time beating Santana, 7-2. Bob Gallagher paced the Mat-attack, belting a circuit drive with two on in the fifth inning.

Gulls Land Star Winger

Bob Courcy, an All-Star right wing in the Western Hockey League for the past two seasons, has been purchased by the San Diego Gulls from the Philadelphia Flyers of the National League, it was announced by Gulls' General Manager-Coach Max McNab.



Bob Courcy

Courcy, 34, has played most of the last three seasons with the Seattle Totems. He made the WHL's first All-Star team in 1968-69, and was a second team selection this past season, losing the first team berth by only three votes.

"Physically, Courcy reminds me of Ronson. He is not as husky as Len, but he is in excellent physical condition," said McNab. Courcy is 5-11, and weighs 170 pounds.

Last season, Courcy ranked sixth in the point standings with 40 goals and 49 assists for 89 points. Again he was the leading goal-scorer among the league's right wingers.

Drive-In Grocery Shopping Is Latest Push Button Idea

Drive-in grocery buying may revolutionize food retailing in the future, according to a new Bank of America report.

The report gives this description of the operation of a combination convenience store-gas station:

"The customer pulls into one of the service islands at the gas station where a push-button panel is located near the pumps. By pushing product-labeled buttons from the driver's seat of her car, the shopper selects from over 100 convenience items pushing the 'total' button last. Her purchases are added up automatically, the order is bagged and delivered to her car by an attendant, and the entire purchase may be charged to a credit card."

Such receptivity to innovation has keyed the success of the convenience store, the fastest growing segment of the food retailing industry.

The bank's periodical, The Small Business Reporter, notes there were about 500 convenience stores with annual sales of $75 million in 1957, and 16,500 stores with sales of $2.7 billion in 1969.

"Essentially, the convenience store combines the time-saving and personalized service of a small store with super market efficiences in management, inventory control and merchandising techniques," the report states.

And, as super markets continue to increase in size, this will create additional marketing opportunities for the bantam outlet.

Medi-Cal Amended

Amended Medi-Cal regulations effective August 1 will allow some 150,000 needy to get more medical services free but require another 50,000 with more resources to pay a certain amount for medical services before becoming eligible.

The changes were adopted Wednesday after the administering Department of Health Care Services weighed evidence from a June 25 public hearing for nearly a week, Director Earl W. Brian announced today.

MR. AND MRS. William R. Hoye, of Spring Valley, look over a corsage presented to Mrs. Hoye during a luncheon honoring her. She retired from the staff at Grossmont College June 30.
Completing a combined total of 11 years service in the Grossmont Union High School District and Grossmont College, the popular personnel clerk plans to grow and market exotic African and Australian flowers.
According to Mrs. Hoye, future plans include a trip to New Zealand, Australia and Hawaii to look at flower-bearing plants that may be grown in southern California's semi-tropical climate.

Art Gallery Features Japan Prints

A selection of recent prints by the contemporary Japanese artist, Rikio Takahashi, is now available in the Art Sales and Rental Gallery at the Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego, Balboa Park.

The artist was born in Tokyo in 1917. He studied wood cut techniques with Koshiro Onchi from 1949 to 1955. Takahashi is currently President of the Japan Print Association.

Takahashi has exhibited internationally having had one man shows in Tokyo, Hawaii, California — at the Santa Barbara Museum of Art and the Fresno Art Center — and, Seattle.

He is represented in the permanent collection of the Tokyo National Museum of Modern Art; the New York Museum of Modern Art; the Art Institute of Chicago; the Philadelphia Museum of Art; the Brooklyn Museum of Art and many others.

Chargers Start Summer Drills; Face Six-Game Pre-Season Tilts

Under the new banner of the American Football Conference of the National League, the 1970 San Diego Chargers open summer training camp at the University of California at Irvine next week.

Head coach Charlie Waller assembles his staff on Monday July 13. Rookies report on Wednesday. Veterans complete the muster on Sunday. The roster of players lists 100 of which 52 are rookies and 48 veterans.

Complimenting the new look in pro football alignment, the Chargers will have a fresh appearance among coaches and players.

Waller embarks on his first full year as head coach with cautious optimism.

"I'm optimistic," he said. "I'm expecting to have an outstanding training camp and I know we are going to get improved performances from our veterans. But I'm not going to build up any false hopes about the rookies."

Waller, however, has unrestrained enthusiasm about his revamped coaching staff. He has hired two new assistants, offensive backfield coach Red Cochran and linebackers coach Hal Herring, and has switched Jackie Simpson from linebackers to defensive backs. Holdover assistants are offensive line coach Joe Madro, receivers coach Jim Phillips and defensive coordinator Bum Phillips.

New players obtained by the Chargers in off-season trades are wide receiver Don Alley from the Pittsburgh Steelers, cornerback Randy Beverly from the New York Jets, defensive end Lamar Lundy from the Los Angeles Rams, defensive tackle Andy Rice from the Cincinnati Bengals and tackle Bob Miller and defensive end Joe Owens from the New Orleans Saints.

But the most eagerly-awaited "debut" will be from the Chargers' own Bob Babich. A No. 1 draft choice in 1969 and standout in last year's training camp, the aspiring middle linebacker returns after missing the 1969 season because of knee surgery.

The large rookie roster runs the gamut from prize draft choices to unknown free agents. No. 1 draft choice wide receiver Walker Gillette from Richmond will not be present. He reports directly to the College All-Star camp in Chicago to prepare for the July 31 game against the world champion Kansas City Chiefs.

Certain to capture attention at Irvine are No. 2 draft choice defensive tackle Tom Williams from UC-Davis, No. 4 guard Bill Maddox from Syracuse an No. 5 running back Pettus Farrar from Norfolk State. No. 6 receiver Billy Parks from Cal State Long Beach will catch passes from No. 8 quarterback Wayne Clark from USIU.

The free agents range from Robert Brown, a 5-foot-9, 170-pound receiver from Northern Arizona who has run a 9.2 in the 100, to Bill Stansfield, a 6-foot-8, 285-pound defensive tackle who was basketball captain at Penn State and did not play football.

The rookies will be issued equipment and take physicals on Wednesday and begin two-a-day workouts on Thursday.

The Chargers will be encamped at UC Irvine through August while commuting to San Diego to play pre-season games at San Diego Stadium against the Dallas Cowboys, Aug. 8; New York Giants, Aug. 15; Chicago Bears, Aug. 24; and Los Angeles Rams, Aug. 29.

San Diego's last two pre-season games are on the road against the St. Louis Cardinals at Cleveland, Sept. 15, and the New Orleans Saints at New Orleans, Sept. 12.

"Two For The Seesaw" Opens Tomorrow Night

Actor's Quarter, 480 Elm st., San Diego will open its next adult theater production "Two For The Seesaw" by William Gibson tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. and continue each Friday and Saturday evening through August 15.

The play opened in New York in 1957 with Henry Fonda and Anne Bancroft in the roles of Jerry and Gittel. The play concerns Jerry Ryan, an attorney from Omaha, Nebraska, who, anticipating a divorce, comes to New York where he befriends and is befriended by Gittel Mosca, a would-be dancer from the Bronx. It shows how each tries to meet the emotional needs of the other and the ups and downs of their successes and failures.

Trina Kaplan

Locally, the role of Jerry will be played by Bob McQuaid who has appeared in three other Budenlee Productions, "Adding Machine," "Santa Claus," and most recently as a knight in "Murder in the Cathedral." Gittel has been double cast, with Trina Kaplan and Kay Mathieus playing on alternate nights.

Trina was last seen as Adelaideiin "Guys and Dolls" in 1968 and has appeared in numerous other local plays. Kay Mathieus, is a newcomer to San Diego, having lived formerly in Bakersfield and is a professional guitarist and teacher.

The play is being directed by Bud Coffin, a former Lemon Grove man, who says he selected "Two For The Seesaw", because it portrays so vividly the difficulties and rewards experienced by two persons of contrasting backgrounds in their efforts to establish a meaningful relationship. "The art of communication is always pertinent and in today's society seems more important than ever," says Coffin.

Art Mart Set For Saturday And Sunday

The sixteenth annual San Diego County Summer Art Mart swings into operation Saturday and Sunday, featuring oils, watercolors, ceramics, sculptures, and other art forms in Balboa Park, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

Over 200 artists will exhibit over 10,000 paintings and other works of art in the two-day, no-admission-charge affair. As a special attraction, C. E. Morton, a well-known San Diego artist will give special demonstrations in seascapes and landscapes.

Local artists who will exhibit works include Emily Austin, Arus Brandon, Bob Landry, Amy and Robert O'Toole, Gloria Palmer, Tony Reinboldt, Nell Smith, Nora Thompson, Charles Kastringer, Aron Wigley, Helen Goodall, Patricia Suggs, Edward Suggs, and Rita Small.

4-H'ers To Fight Pollution

"Will you live in a world of smog-bound skies or sweet clean air? Scummy stream or sparkling water? Eroded land or fertile fields? You must choose."

That is the challenge open to 4-H youths in a recent conservation bulletin titled "You Can Make The Difference." They are urged to get involved in "shaping the world you live in" by participating in the 4-H conservation of natural resources program.

So far this year an estimated 303,000 boys and girls are doing just that. They have enrolled in the program, reports the National 4-H Service Committee.

Like charity, conservation begins at home. And this is where most projects are centered: Neighborhood, town and county. Parents, 4-H leaders, town officials, law enforcement officers, and Extension Service personnel cooperate with the youngsters.

One of their biggest boosters is John Deere of Moline, Illinois, sponsor of the national 4-H conservation of natural resources program for seven straight years.

Annual awards are offered to idividual 4-H members, to clubs and to counties in recognition of their conservation efforts. A $50 cash award awaits the county completing the most outstanding conservation program this year. Ten clubs throughout the state will receive certificates of merit.

Awards for 4-H'ers consist of the following: Medals of honor for as many as four outstanding conservation projects in each county; an expense-paid trip as a delegate to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for the best project throughout the entire state. A $600 scholarship will be presented to six youths who complete the most impressive projects in the nation.

Local Reservist Elevated To Rank of Rear Admiral

Naval Reserve Captain Dwight Putnam, USNR, of 3055 Crane st., Lemon Grove, was promoted to Rear Admiral during ceremonies at Headquarters, Eleventh Naval District.

At 50, Putnam was the youngest of seven Naval Reserve captains selected for promotion. His promotion on June 25 was another milestone in a 30-year Navy career which includes participation in two wars and many personal "first.".

He was the first commanding officer of a submarine division at the Reserve Training Center; the first commanding officer of the Reserve Officer School (Pilt School) there; the first Group Commander at the Reserve Training Center, and now is the first Reserve Rear Admiral selected from San Diego.

Born in Salt Lake City, Putnam has lived in San Diego since childhood. He was graduated from San Diego High in 1937, and entered the Naval Reserve and active duty via the Midshipman School at Nrthwestern University in 1940.

After World War II he completed his college work and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from San Diego State College. Except for active duty during World War II and the Korean War, he has been employed in various capacities by the County of San Diego since 1940.

Putnam, who commanded the San Diego Naval Reserve Training Center from 1952 to 1954, feels extremely gratified at the growth of the Naval Reserve locally. The San Diego Training Center is the largest, in terms of active participants, in the Eleventh Naval District.

RADM Putnam was on board the destroyer Thornton at Pearl Harbor during the attack on Dec. 7, 1941, and was in Tokyo aboard the submarine tender Proteus during the signing of the surrender by Japan.

During the war he served in two submarines the S-38, a small "S-boat," with a crew of about 50 and the USS Springer.

Putnam was called back to duty during the Korean War and served as navigator and legal officer aboard the sub tender Howard W. Gilmore.

Besides the normal weekly and summer reserve participation, Putnam has been a member of several selection boards in Washington, D.C.; headed the Eleventh Naval District reserve policy board three times and is a past president of the San Diego Naval Reserve Association.

The new admiral will serve as an advisor to the Commandant, Eleventh Naval District, Rear Admiral Joseph W. Williams, Jr.

His awards and decorations include the Silver Star, Submarine Combat Insignia (with three stars), World War II Victory Medal, National Defense Medal (with one star), Japanese Occupation, Pacific Theater, Naval Reserve and Armed Forces Reserve Medals.

RADM Putnam resides with his wife, Rosemary, and daughter, Suzy.

Two older daughters, both married, live in the San Diego area. He is the son of Ellen L. Putnam of La Mesa.

Lemon Grove Youths Graduate From UCB

Jim Wermers, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wermers, 8060 Palm st. and Steve Bickley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bickley, 8102 Palm st., graduated last month from the University of California at Berkeley.

Wermers received his bachelor of arts degree in philosophy, and Bickley was an English major.

the 7300 block Canton and no damage; and the third was at 10:52 p.m. in the 6800 block Central, with no damage.

Ten-year-old Tryma Saadra of 3131 Crane st., had to be treated by a doctor on June 30, after she reportedly stuck a finger in an electrical socket. L.G. firemen rescuers responded to the call.

Reinhard Buettemier, 78, of 7150 Broadway, Space c-11 was pronounced dead on arrival at Grossmont Hospital after he had suffered a possible heart attack.

Pete Wilson Appointed To Committee

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman Pete Wilson, R-San Diego, was informed by the White House that he has been appointed to the President's Citizen Advisory Committee on Environmental Quality.

The committee, created by executive order of the President, will advise the cabinet-level Council on Environmental Quality, headed by President Nixon's science advisor, Dr. Lee A. DuBridge.

Wilson, chairman of the Assembly Committee on Urban Affairs and Housing and a member of the Select Committee on Environmental Quality, is author of major legislation this year which seeks to control development of California's diminishing coastline.

The presidential appointment to the 15-member national committee is for three years, expiring on May 3, 1973.

Wilson, 36, joins Charles A. Lindbergh of Conecticnut, Arthur Godfrey of Virginia and Henry L. Diamond, New York commissioner of environmental conservation, as new members on the committee.

Women To Go To Laguna Art Festival

The Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association is sponsoring a bus tour to the Laguna Arts Festival July 18. The bus will leave at 2 p.m. from the corner of Lincoln and La Mesa blvd. in La Mesa.

The cost is $9 per person. Those interested may call Mrs. Edmund Deaton, 469-2090. Reservations close July 11.

RADM. DWIGHT PUTNAM, USNR, proudly has rear admiral shoulder boards positioned by granddaughters, Peggy, 6, left, and Penny Jo Morrow, 4. Rear Admiral J. W. Williams, Jr., 11th Naval District commandant, presented him his scrambled-egg hat while daughter Suzy and Mrs. Putnam watched. Putnam was one of four Navy reservists in the nation to be promoted to the rank of rear admiral.

One-Fifth Of Cleveland To Close Down

Stanley R. Stevenson, Supervisor of the Cleveland National Forest, announced that nearly one-fifth of the high value watersheds in the Forest will be closed to all public entry.

The areas to be closed because of high fire danger are the more inaccessible steeper slopes of the Forest. They will be posted with "Closed Area" signs at all road and trail entrances and at intervals along the "Closed Area" boundaries. Also, other areas are closed to smoking and these areas will be posted.

Grossmont To Screen Czech Invasion Films

Grossmont College will interrupt its "The Kinetic Art" series to present documentary films on the invasion of Czechoslovakia in August 1968 and the Paris Student revolution. "Prague, The Summer of Tanks" and "The Right to Speak" will be screened at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday of next week in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

The two documentary films are brought together in one program that offer a factual account of the two most important events in Europe in this decade — the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia and the Paris student up-rising.

"Prague, The Summer of Tanks" was made by professional Czech filmmakers who began filming within one hour of the Russian midnight takeover of the Prague airport.

Each event through the hours that followed in that day of shock and terror is on the screen. The covereage is so thorough that the first 25 minutes of the film are concerned with the action up to noon of the first day of the invasion.

"The Right to Speak" presents the sequence of events in France from February to June — the Paris student revolution. Four French cinema students collaborated to produce "The Right to Speak." The film details every aspect of the efforts of French students to take a firm stand against the establishment.

"The Right to Speak" is an explicit picture of a people in revolt but with entirely different objectives than the Czechs. The youth of France directed their revolt against bourgeois values and sought the right to make their voices heard.

The film documents the strides students made and their reverses during the four months which eventually gained some of the reforms they so greatly wanted.

Both films include the original live action action sound tracks with an English narration. The public is invited to relive history while viewing two outstanding films that will influence the course of European history for the next decade. The price of admission is $1.50 with tickets available at the door.

Boney Claims Mills Backs Tax Increases

"Senator Mills has shown that he stands four-square with the increase-the-tax block in our legislature," Senate Candidate Henry Boney charged this week.

"Mills remained true to the end in his determination to vote against a budget that would spend only what money the state could expect to take in. He sided with a group of legislators who wanted to spend more money than the state has available.

"But neither Mills or any of his fellow budget blockers were willing to propose new taxes to pay for their bigger spending programs. What they were proposing in effect, was a deficit spending program, with all the ills that such a course could lead to," Boney said.

"Thanks to Governor Reagan and the Republican legislative leaders, California today has a budget that is programmed to live within the amount of money the state expects to take in right from existing taxes. It allocates existing revenues thoughtfully and in fair proportions. It includes, for example, $102 million in new aid for schools. School aid will be maintained at the same level as last year, plus a very generous 6 per cent inflation factor.

"Yet Mills and fellow budget blockers wanted more money — for a few special categories of state spending — money that they knew was not available without tax increases," Boney added.

"Mills owes the taxpaying public in the 40th Senate District an explanation of his support for a program that would have led to still higher taxes for everyone," Boney said.

Demand Strong For 'Mail Call' Letters Here

The new slogan, "USO Is Like A Letter From Home," was given special meaning recently by USO staffers in Vietnam, who report that the demand for "Mail Call" letters is still greater than the supply. There's still nothing really like a letter from home and this is an SOS to help fill the void, says Miss Marilyn Bassford, Director of the local USO.

Because of military restrictions, USO does not give out the names and addresses of individual servicemen. However, each club in Vietnam and Thailand has a special "Mail Call" box in which letters for servicemen are displayed. Servicemen wishing to correspond with the writers of the letters may copy the writer's address and respond.

Anyone who would like to correspond with servicemen in Vietnam and Thailand may do so by addressing their letters to the directors of any of the USO Clubs in these countries. A note, "For Mail Call", placed in the lower left hand corner of the envelope will insure immediate placement into the "Mail Call" box.

Postal regulations prevent the addressing of envelopes to "Any Serviceman," but this may be used as a salutation at the beginning of the letter. Servicemen are deeply hurt and disappointed when the writers of such letters do not reply when they have indicated that they would do so. Therefore, the sincerity of such offers are extremely important and should be followed up with a reply.

For further information, please call the San Diego USO office — 234-7989.

Grossmont JC Instructor Gets Intensive Course

Grossmont College nursing instructor, Mrs. Marilyn Rummerfield, was recently selected as one of twenty nursing educators from throughout the United States to attend a two-week intensive course in the "Dynamics of Faculty-Student Relationships in Collegiate Nursing" that began on July 6, at the University of Colorado School of Nursing.

According to Mrs. Naomi Medearis, coordinator of interdisciplinary and leadership programs for the University of Colorado School of Nursing, Office of Continuing Education Services, a highlight of the meeting will be live dialogs with Liberal Arts and Nursing students enrolled at colleges and universities in Colorado and surrounding states.

"The fact of campus unrest indicates the critical need for higher education, and especially faculty members, to take a new and close look at the education process," Mr. Medearis said.

"The program of the course will concentrate on the dynamics of control, of support systems, of risk-taking, of role rigidities, and the dissonance between the actual environment and the culture of the isolated classroom.

United States Leads Canada In Tongue-wag

SAN DIEGO — "Everybody's Talkin'" — boy, are they ever!

Particularly in the United States, where Americans now rank as gabbiest in the world . . . at least on the telephone.

Figures released today by Pacific Telephone show that the United States and Canada have exchanged places in the dialogue derby.

Americans averaged 701 conversations per person during 1968 (the figures are as of Jan., 1, 1969, because it takes nearly a year to compile worldwide data), an increase of 33. Canada, leader since 1951, dropped a notch with 693 conversations per person.

And little old Iceland, where it is too cold to do much else but talk, ranks third with 632.

Figures in "The World's Telephones" — an annual review compiled by AT&T — show that there are five times as may telephones in the United States (109 million) as there are in the second-ranking nation, Japan (21 million).

Pitcairn Island rates near the bottom of the heap with 15 telephones, all of which are operated by the government.

At that, the tiny isle of "Mutiny On the Bounty" fame ranks better on a percentage basis (21.2 telephones per 100 population) than sprawling China where the telephone per-capita ratio is a miniscule .05.

Here in California, La Jolla ranks among the communities with the highest telephone-to-population ratios. There are 34,040 telephones in La Jolla compared to a head count of 33,000 for a 102.2 per cent mark.

Beverly Hills again heads the list with an impressive 158.6 per cent mark, while El Segundo rank right up there with 151.2 per cent.

A spot check across San Diego County shows that community telephone-population ratios hover around 50 per cent, other than for La Jolla's out-of-sight figures.

In the El Cajon-La Mesa area, the ratio is 53.3 per cent.

There are 323,847 phones in San Diego proper, but double that number in the San Diego extended area.

And for the person who really wants to get away from it all, the Island of Canton is suggested; there, the telephone count is zip.

An excellent place, it would seem, for some enterprising person with two Dixie cups and a piece of string to set up his own telephone company.
